In worship the children have been learning how David calmed King Saul by playing the lyre (1 Samuel 16:23) Does your child have a way of calming themselves when they feel angry or upset? Is there a quiet space for them to talk to God?

A Message from Mr Newton

Our first priority at Saltwood is the safety and wellbeing of your children. At the end of the school day teachers are tasked with safely dismissing all their children by ensuring they are sent home with the right adults, according to the wishes of their parents. As you will appreciate, this can be a challenging task so I would respectfully ask parents not to approach our teachers at the end of the day until they have dismissed the whole class. May I also remind parents that they should not enter the school building without being signed in, so please come in via the school office where you will be given all the assistance we can offer!

Remembrance Service at Saltwood Church this Sunday

This year has seen a special focus on Remembrance Sunday as we commemorate 100 years since the signing of the Armistice. As always, there will be a family remembrance service at Saltwood church starting at 10am this Sunday, followed by a ceremony on the village green where Saltwood pupils will lay a wreath at 10:50. All are welcome.

Children in Need Next Friday

We are coming out in spots to support Children in Need next week. For a £1 donation (or more if you can) children are encouraged to come to school wearing something spotty. Own clothes will be fine if spots aren't your thing, but it is a good opportunity to get creative. The School Council has decided on activities for each class for additional fund raising opportunities.

Year 5 will be holding a cake sale on the playground at the end of the day with all proceeds going to Children in Need, so bring some cash along for a tasty treat – even Mr Burrows has been busy in the kitchen!

Anti Bullying Week Next Week

Our school will be taking part in Anti Bullying Week next week with activities on the theme of Choose Respect taking place in all classes, including a competition to design a friendship heart.

A message from FOSS – win a bottle of champagne!

If anyone would be willing to have a Colebrook & Sturrock board put up at their house to advertise the Christmas Bazaar, please let us know by Friday 16th Nov by email to sec.foss@outlook.com and include your address and contact details please. You could win a bottle of champagne for taking part!
